Reporting your volunteer hours

Understanding the volunteer efforts needed to run our club is important beyond just checking the box that a member has completed the minimum hours for their membership.

This information is used to help us plan for expanded programs and events in future seasons and is a core data point that helps us qualify for not-for-profit funding and grants.

Volunteer hours can be reported online using a simple Google Form or alternately by submitting a batch worksheet. The two processes are presented on the CPCC Web site under Members -> Volunteering -> Report Volunteer Hours

As part of this process members will be receiving periodic status reports via email with a personal summary of their volunteer hours reported to date.

If you need help reporting your hours or have questions, talk to your league volunteer liaison.
